President Johnson Names Weaver First Negro Member Of Cabinet Dr. Inge 1st Negro State Senator

Robert C. Weaver, Secretary of the new Cabinet-level Department of Housing and Urban Development, following Senate confirmation.

Weaver To Head New Department Of Housing, Urban Development

President Johnson who continues to pace his historic Great Society program, last Thursday called upon a Negro to be the Secretary of the new Cabinet-level Department of Housing and Urban Development. This unsuspected move by the president brought jubilation and happiness to Negroes throughout the nation and the world.

Robert Clifton Weaver, the administrator of the Housing and Home Finance Agency if confirmed by the Senate, will become the first Negro to serve in the Cabinet. There is little doubt in Washington circles that he will be confirmed. President Johnson made the announcement late in the afternoon in the Fish Room of the White House.

For Dr. Weaver, the appointment marks the end of a long journey. Twice he came close

Welfare Drain Heavy, Demand State Take Over

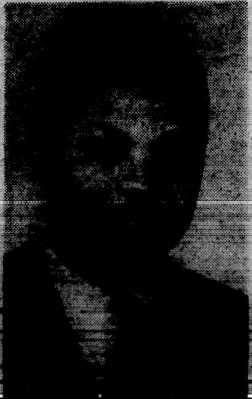

Charles A. Matthews, director of the Essex Board of Freeholders, offered a plan last week for the return of the administration and direction of Essex welfare operations to the State of New Jersey.

The present Essex budget set for adoption this month carries an outlay of $11,676,136 in Essex taxpayer money to finance the projected 1966 welfare cost. This represents a $1,442,920 increase for welfare over last

Dr. Inge Becomes First Of Race To Take Seat As State Senator

BY CAROLYN K. KNIGHT

TRENTON — A Negro physician, native Virginian was the central figure here Tuesday of last week when he was sworn in as the first Negro ever to serve in the Senate of New Jersey. This historic event had as its setting the opening of the 190th session of the state legislature.

Dr. Hutchins F. Inge, 65 with office and residence at 221 South Orange avenue, Newark was the first of his race elected to the highest branch of the state legislature. Senator (Dr.) Inge has practiced medicine in the same neighborhood for the past 29 years.

The Senator physician was more fortunate than his brother Dr. Theodore Inge of East Orange who was among the first members of his race to seek office in East Orange municipal elections and was never elected. The Senator was a winner in his first time out. The newly elect-

Core Moves To Bring Better Education To Negro Children

NEW YORK — The Congress of Racial Equality in a surprise move to put the question of Harlem public schools in the forefront of its activities began legal action here last week to prevent the Board of Education from assigning excessive numbers of unlicensed and inexperienced teachers to predominantly Negro schools.

The civil rights organization, entering a suit on behalf of nine mothers in Brooklyn, Manhattan and the Bronx, charged that the board has "knowingly and wilfully" assigned more sub-standard teachers to elementary and junior high schools attended by Negro children than it has to other schools attended

Negro Democrats Seek Greater Representation

WASHINGTON — Prominent Negro Political figures met in two sections of the country to try and bring about "Greater Negro Representation" in major offices in this year's state elections.

NEW YORK — In New York, some 30 Negro Democratic politicians, who formed an informal association last month, met last week here to discuss the nomination of a Negro candidate on the state ticket this year.

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. — Here in this centrally located valley town the Minority Community Endorsing Convention, composed of Negroes and Mexican-American officeholders attempted here last week to reach agreement on a candidate for Secretary of State.

Members of both groups have cleared their plans with the Democratic National Committee, which would like to see Negroes running for state office this year, not only in New York and California, but also in Michigan, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

The Negroes' moves and the responsiveness of the national party officials can be traced to the independence shown by Negro voters in last November's municipal elections.

Republican breakthroughs in previously Democratic Negro areas are believed by many to have played a major role in the election of John V. Lindsay as Mayor of New York and Arlen Specter as Philadelphia District Attorney. Republicans were re-elected in Louisville, Ky., by retaining support of a majority of Negroes, despite concerted Democratic efforts to split the Negro support.

Attorney General Edward W. Brooke of Massachusetts, a Negro, has since emerged as the leading Republican candidate for the United States Senate, and Pennsylvania Republicans have slated a Negro as their candidate for a Superior Court judgeship. He is Theodore D. Spaulding, a judge in the Philadelphia County Court.

Official concern over Republican incursions into the Negro vote is believed to have been a factor in President Johnson's decision, announced yesterday, to nominate Robert C. Weaver as Secretary of the new Department of Housing and Urban Development.

CORE

submit a new plan for the assignment of teachers to predominantly Negro schools.

The Board of Education, in apparent acknowledgement of the fact that fewer experienced teachers volunteer to serve in de facto segregated schools, last April called for a revised system of teacher assignment and rotation.

The proposal, however, ran into immediate opposition from the United Federation of Teachers, the bargaining representative of the city's teachers.

James B. Donovan, who was then president of the board, replied to the union's objections that the proposals were "a matter of policy and there can be no negotiations on this." He conceded, however, that "the manner of accomplishing this objective may be negotiable."

The complaint by CORE bases much of its case on a recent study of the city's schools, sponsored by the Russell Sage Foundation. In a 151-page report on "Pupils and Schools in New York City" the researchers concluded that fewer than one-fourth of the special service schools had 65 per cent or more regularly licensed teachers, while more than two-thirds of the regular schools did. Special service schools are in the low socio-economic, predominantly Negro, neighborhoods and are intended to give pupils special advantages through smaller classes.

Eleanor Bernert Sheldon and Raymond A. Glazier, the authors of the study, said the board had been making "every effort" to establish policies for the assignment of licensed teachers where there was the greatest need for them. They warned, however, that the statistics showed that these policies were not being effectively implemented.

Weaver

to becoming a member of the Cabinet, and twice he was denied the job because Congress refused to establish a Department of Urban Affairs.

Kennedy Balked in '61

When President Kennedy proposed the establishment of such a department in 1961, it seemed clear that Dr. Weaver, as one of the country's leading housing experts, would get the job. This apparently contributed to resistance to the bill, particularly among Southerners, and it failed to clear the House Rules Committee.

Mr. Kennedy then tried to create the department through his reorganization powers and said he would nominate Dr. Weaver but this, too, was defeated in Congress.

For the new Secretary-designate, service in Washington is an old story. He first came here, with two fresh Harvard degrees, in 1933 to work under Harold L. Ickes in the Department of Interior.

His job was advisor on Negro affairs to the Secretary, but his activities were far ranging. They included desegregating the employees' canteen in the Interior Department with a group of his friends. Having acquired his doctor's degree in economics from Harvard in 1934, Dr. Weaver worked as a special assistant in the Federal Housing Authority from 1937-40 and with the War Production Board and the War Manpower Commission during World War II.

After the war he taught at Columbia and New York Universities. When W. Averell Harriman was elected Governor of New York in 1956, he first named Dr. Weaver as a deputy state housing commissioner, and later to be state rent administrator.

In the last post, Dr. Weaver became the first Negro to sit in a New York Governor's Cabinet.

Of Middle Class Family

Dr. Weaver is the product of a tidy, careful conservative middle-class family. He was born Dec. 29, 1907, in the Brookland outskirts of Washington, the son of a postal clerk. He learned the electricians trade as a young man and still takes on wiring jobs.

In 1936, he married the former Ella Heith, a drama student at Carnegie Institute of Technology. She is now a teacher and speech therapist at Brooklyn College. Their 22-year-old adopted son, Robert Jr., shot himself fatally in an apparent accident in 1962.

One known cause of birth defects is the German measles virus. A recent epidemic is estimated to have damaged 15,000 to 20,000 babies and to have caused as many as 30,000 miscarriages and stillbirths, according to The National Foundation-March of Dimes.

Council Of Negro Women Sponsors 9th Brotherhood Food Festival

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Miss Dorothy I. Height, National President of the National Council of Negro Women, announced the appointment of Mrs. Dorothy Shaefer Proctor last week as Chairman of the 8th Annual Brotherhood Food Festival sponsored by the National Council of Negro Women on February 22, 1966.

Throng of individuals of diverse races, faiths and nations will break bread together at this annual affair which will be held at the Presidential Arms, 1320 G. Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.

Commenting on the significance of the Festival, Miss Height noted that people the world over have expressed their individuality in foods. "In America," she said, "our melting pot idea takes on meaning as we share the things each holds dear with others of different backgrounds."

In commemoration of National Brotherhood Week sponsored by the National Conference of Christian and Jews, NCNW held its first Brotherhood Food Festival in 1959. Because of its phenomenal success, made possible by the co-operation of participating embassies and organizations, NCNW decided on simultaneous observances throughout the Nation to demonstrate brotherhood on a country-wide basis.

On February 19, 1966, affiliates and local councils in Region 1, NCNW, will sponsor a Brotherhood Food Festival at the Henry Hudson Hotel in New York City. Mrs. Marc Hughes Fisher is the Director of Region 1.

The National Council of Negro Women is composed of twenty five national affiliated organizations and ninety seven local councils representing 3,850,000 women throughout America.

$420 Millions Insurance In Force Reported

DURHAM, N. C.—The auditorium of the new multi-million dollar home office of North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company was the scene of the annual policyholders meeting held at 12 noon, Monday of last week, January 10. A. T. Spaulding delivered the 67th annual report to policyholders, his seventh as president of the company, in which he stated, "Proper balance is essential to any sound situation..." I am pleased to be able to report to you that the affairs of your company are in balance and the corporate body is healthy and strong; and I have the faith to believe that its future is secure."

He pointed out that the interest shown in the formal dedication of the New home office building through active participation on the part of government, education, business, industry, labor, and the professions represents an outstanding example of "togetherness" and pride in this achievement. The new building is to be dedicated the weekend of April 1 and an invitation was extended to all to attend these ceremonies.

"Complete and audited statements and reports reflecting the results of 1965 operations are not yet available. We do have enough tentative information, however, to indicate that our assets will increase approximately $3 million and, therefore, exceed $66.5 million; and the insurance in force is expected to increase at least $65 million and reach approximately $420 million. The payments to policyholders will amount to more than $6 million, making a total of such payments since organization in excess of $121 million," the company president stated.

Spaulding said that one of God's greatest gifts to man is the "power to become," and challenge all young people and especially Negro youth to be ever striving to exercise to the utmost their "power to become" in the development of their highest potentials.

In closing, he recognized the company's indebtedness to its founders "and all of the others who have gone before us who helped to make our rich heritage possible."

Three members of the Board of Directors whose terms of office expired at this meeting were elected for four years: A.

T. Spaulding, Dr. James M. Nabrit and C. C. Spaulding.

Dr. C. D. Watts, vice president medical director was elected to fill a vacancy on the board resulting from the retirement of Dr. Clyde Donnell. Dr. Donnell retired after having been associated with the company for 50 years. He was a former vice president and medical director, and chairman of the Board of Directors.

Dr. Watts is a native of Atlanta, Georgia, and is a graduate of Morehouse College of Atlanta. He received the M. D. degree at Howard University in 1943 and interned at Freedmen's Hospital during 1943 and 1944.

Dr. Watts served as surgical resident of Freedmen's Hospital for three years and instructor in surgery for two years in the Department of Surgery at Howard University. He is a Diplomate of the American Board of Surgery and a Fellow of the American College of Surgery.

He is engaged in private practice in the City of Durham with specialization in the field of surgery.

Dr. Watts is also an associate Chief of Surgery at Lincoln Hospital; is a former Director of student health service at North Carolina College at Durham, and has served North Carolina Mutual as Assistant to the Medical Director prior to his election to Medical Director on January 11, 1966. He is a member of St. Joseph's A. M. E. Church; Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity; Durham Committee on Negro Affairs, Durham Academy of Medicine; and is past president of the Old North State Medical Society.

He is married to the former Miss Constance Merrick and they have three daughters and a son.

ed legislator had the backing of Louis Ward, chairman of the Central Democratic County Committee and endorsement of Dennis Carey, Essex County Chairman of the Democratic party.

Senator (Dr.) Inge owes much of his popularity among the colored voters of Essex County to his charming and brilliant wife school teacher, Evelyn. Mrs. Inge was ever at the side of her physician husband throughout the campaign.

Senator (Dr.) Inge, a native of Charlottesville, Virginia graduated from Sumner High School, St. Louis, Mo. He earned a degree in Pharmacy from the University of Minnesota. It was about the time when his brother Dr. Theodore Inge of East Orange came to Newark as resident physician of the now defunct Kennedy Hospital then located in West Kinney street near High that he entered Howard University School of Medicine. It was not long after serving internships at St. Louis City Hospital and at Mercer Hospital, Philadelphia that he came to Newark where he has lived and practiced for the past 29 years.

Among those who witnessed the swearing in ceremonies were Mrs. Carolyn Kelly Knight, Secretary to Senator (Dr.) Inge; Madina Davis, Kitty V. Taylor, Gloria Butler, Stephen Burke, Rev. Cartwright, Kate I. Fuller, Julia Melton, Rita Norris, Larrie Stalks, Calvin West, Newark Councilman Irvine I. Turner, Mary Worth, Herbert Calloway, William Payne, William Stewart, Russell Bingham, Arthur Love, Vera Duke, Virginia Williams and Estelle Pierce. Other seen included: Daniel Williams, Velma Gordon, Hon. Madlyn Williams and husband Samuel Williams, Jennie Lemon, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hepburn, Gladys Lewis, Bessie Timmons, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Boote, Doris Florence, Erner Hamilton, Rudolph V. ## Newarker Wins Army Promotion

ORLEANS, FRANCE — William O. Buie of Newark, New Jersey, has been promoted to the rank of Staff Sergeant (E-6) while serving at Headquarters, U. S. Army communication Zone, Europe, in Orleans, France.

Staff Sergeant Buie is a data processing shift supervisor at the Large Scale Computer Service Center of the Supply Maintenance Agency, a key element of this command which provides logistical, communications and administrative support to all U. S. military forces in Europe.

A graduate of Red Springs (North Carolina) High School, Sergeant Buie entered the Army in August 1948. He came to France in January 1965 from Key West, Florida, where he was stationed with Headquarters Battery, 65th Artillery.

This is the sixth tour of overseas duty for the 18-year veteran in the Army, who previously served in Germany, Korea, Japan, Hawaii and Okinawa. During the Korean War, he was awarded the Purple Heart, National Defense Medal, Korean Service Medal, United Nations Service Medal, Combat Infantryman Badge, Meritorious Unit Commendation, and the Republic of Korea Presidential Unit Citation. He also wears the Good Conduct Medal, Army of Occupation Medal and two Overseas Bars.

With the Sergeant in France in his wife, Mary. Her mother, Mrs. Ruth Bayler, resides at 98 Prince St., Newark. The sergeant's mother, Mrs. Nezzie L. Buie, resides at 41 17th Ave., Newark.

Birth defects come in many forms and varying degrees of seriousness, says The National Foundation-March of Dimes. The most severe can cause lifelong handicaps, disfigurement or mental retardation. Some defects progress relentlessly to death.

'DOC' WILSON, THE MAN WHO KNOWS

BOOK OF PSLAMS
GIVE THANKS UNTO THE LORD; FOR HE IS GOOD: FOR HIS MERCY ENDURETH FOREVER.

CHAPTER 119
BLESSED ARE THE UNDEFILED IN THE WAY, WHO WALK IN THE LAW OF THE LORD.

With my whole heart have I sought thee; O let me not wander from thy commandments.

Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.

I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways.

I will delight myself in thy statutes; I will not forget thy word.

Thy hands have made me and fashioned me; give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.

Let thy tender mercies come unto me, that I may live; for thy law is my delight.

Thy faithfulness is unto generations: thou hast established the earth, and it abideth.

They continue this day according to thine ordinances; for all the thy servants.

Unless thy law had been my delights, I should then have perished in mine affliction.

Let my cry come near before thee, O lord: give men understanding according to thy word.

Let my supplication come before thee; deliver me according to thy word.

The righteousness of thy testimonies is everlasting, and I shall live.

My tongue shall speak of thy word: for all thy commandments are righteous.

I have longed for thy salvation, O Lord: and thy law is my delight.

Let my soul live, and it shall praise thee: and let thy judgments help me.

I have gone astray like a lost sheep: seek thy servant: for I do not forget thy commandments.

Thy Word Is True From The Beginning: And Every One Of Thy Righteous Judgements Endureth Forever.

BLESSING OF TRUTH
Send out thy light and thy truth: let them lead me. Ps. 43:3

Dear Doc' Wilson—
Bridgeport Conn.

I am the girl who called you Monday about helping me with my husband. If you can help me I will pay whatever you charge. I know this will sound simple but it's true. My husband is good to me in every way, but he's too jealous. He doesn't want me to go out at all I don't mind him going out alone, and sometimes with me, but there are times when a person wants to go out and not be bothered with anyone. Sometimes I like to go out with girlfriends. If I slip out he fights me like a dog. I might as well be in jail because being with him is just like a prison. Can you fix him so I can go out. I am young, I must go out and enjoy myself whenever I get ready. — I can't even go to church alone. The bathroom is the only place I can rest in peace. If I stay in there too long he bangs on the door. Should I leave him or find a way around this problem. Whatever you say, is what I'll do. I will come to New York and live if you say so, I have money.

Answer:
He is away from home 10 hours each day, six days a week. If you were doing anything wrong, or wanted too, you have all the time in the world to do it. He took out the phone so other fellows couldn't call you, now, he can't even call and check up himself. Let me take a good shot at this case before you leave home. I have something that will "straighten him up, or" straighten him out.—Seventy Five percent of the Military personnel that has seen extensive service overseas return to the states with this attitude. If they have spent time in the Philippines, Japan, Italy, France, England or Germany, then they have done so much dirt, and seen so much done that it's hard to keep clean thoughts running through those dirty little minds.

Dear Doc' Wilson — Ohio

I love that graveyard dust. It has helped my luck and brought me peace of mind. Now if your graveyard dirt is equally as great, it should be able to stop these people whoever they are from sprinkling things around my house, on my porch and steps, and on my car. Seeing this stuff day after day frightens me, and when I become frightened I have splitting headaches all day long on my job. I am the principle of a high school and I do believe I will resign if these headaches continue for I am cross with everyone. I have no enemies that I know of, so naturally I can't be of any assistance to you. Clear up this problem for me and name your price. Money means nothing.

Answer:

When I spoke with you over the phone you mentioned that your husband has been begging you for a divorce for over six months. If I remember right, and I think I do: you said no one knew about those awful headaches but you, your doctor and your husband. Since your husband gets off from work at 2 a.m. but never gets home until just before daybreak, no one including you or the neighbors could see him if he was the culprit who is doing the sprinkling. I may be wrong but I believe he's my boy so I'm going to work on him first.

Dear Doc' Wilson — Flin Mich.

I have an internal odor and it is driving me mad. I feel that others smell it too so I am slowly becoming a nervous wreck. Help me.

Answer:

Once before I mentioned African Zudah Bush Tea to you. It will wash the odor from your system just like it washes the taste for whiskey from an alcoholic's stomach. There is nothing better. It really tones the body.

Dear Doc' Wilson — Augusta Ga.

Please don't put anymore "Blackout Blessings" in the paper. I couldn't figure them out cause I didn't ever know what they were all about. I can hardly see at all by moonlight very little by lamp light, and I barely make it with daylight, so Doc' please drop the blackout.

Answer:

Okay.

Dear Doc' Wilson — Miami

When I feel your hands everything changes for good for me. When you come to Miami again will you let me hold your hands? If I can look into your eyes and hold your hands at the same time I'll bet a fat man I'll be straight. Doc' don't forget to bring the pills for my husband but be sure you give them to me. I was a fool before. I let him handle the pills. Instead of taking one a day, he took two. Pretty soon he was playing Santa Claus to the whole neighborhood and left me sitting at home "high and dry". I stole the pills from his pockets and threw them in a bucket of water. He like to have died. Doc' bring me the pills. I will build him up, or somebody else.

Answer:

It will be a long long time before I pass your way again so you had better do all the "eye-balling" and hand holding you can do. I must give sometime to Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Upstate New York. Your husband called me and said you wanted him to have some more pills, so I told him I'd send them to "you". He said: never mind and hung up.

Dear Doc' Wilson — Chicago

You wrote about that Hebrew Oil but I can't find it anywhere.

Has it another name?

Answer:
The original name for Hebrew Oil is Star of Bethlehem. We handle it, and two or three expensive export, import firms do too, but they are so high.

Dear Doc' Wilson — Savannah
You promised me you would bring some Holy Water on your trip. When I sprinkle it on my sheets I rest like a baby and my luck changes immediately from bad to good. Will you remember to bring it.

Answer:

I will remember to ship it as I will not be stopping in Augusta or Savannah this time. Tour changed.

Archie Moore Signed For 'Fortune Cookie'

Archie Moore, former light heavyweight boxing champion, has been signed to play Ron Rich's father in Billy Wilder's "The Fortune Cookie," a Mirisch Corporation presentation starring Jack Lemmon, Walter Matthau and introducing Judi West for United Artists release.

The famed boxer has acted in motion pictures several times previously, including appearances in "Huckleberry Finn" and "The Carpetbaggers."

Negroes Figure Better Players In Basketball

"The truth is that Negroes generally play basketball better than whites," according to Jeremy Lerner in the February issue of Holiday magazine.

Any experienced basketball player knows, Lerner says, "that if a Negro and a white player are the same height, the Negro is likely to have longer arms and legs, bigger feet and hands, narrower hips and the ability to jump higher."

The evidence supports Lerner, for he points out that about half the players in the National Basketball Association are Negroes. Pro statistics for the past season show that five out of the top six scorers, nine out of the 10 best rebounders and seven out of the 10 leaders in assists were Negroes.

There's also a racial difference in tone, style and feeling, Lerner says. While whites concentrate on winning, Negroes are concerned about how they play the game.

"It must not be thought that practitioners of the Negro style have any less interest in winning than anyone else . . . but victory doesn't count unless it is won in style . . . The desire is not merely to win, but to win and be beautiful."

In his Holiday article, Lerner also claims that "the notion of giving one's all for the team is essentially white Protestant. The Negro style has no truck with self-sacrifice: enough of that elsewhere. And enough of anonymity: the pure Negro style calls for individuality, extravagance, display. Where white competition requires never-say-die battling to the end, the Negro responds with artistry. And all other things being equal, the artist wins."

Lerner is the author of a recently published novel about a basketball player.

ington. He came to Newark at an early age. He was graduated from East Orange High School. He later studied at Rutgers University and graduated from the former Mecca College of Chiropractic in this city. The Doctor Minister was director of the Ancient Schools, which he established in Mt. Olive Township. In 1947 he purchased 126 acres of the old Strelec Farm and his parishioners have erected three buildings there which are used for vocational and theological training.

Dr. Cole lived in New Rochelle, N.Y., before returning to Newark 30 years ago. He was a veteran of World War I, when he served in France. He wrote several plays that were broadcast over Newark radio stations and was the author of various religious works, including a book entitled, "Seven Sermons That Can Change Your Life."

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Christine Cole, and two brothers, Henry and Rev. Horace M. Cole, both of East Orange. Services will be private.

Welfare

year or a 14 per cent jump. It is the largest single factor in the prospective eight cent rise in the county tax rate, Matthews noted.

Under the Matthews plan for state takeover, his proposal is to have the state provide in 1966 for three-fourths of the county's welfare share instead of the present 50-50 cost sharing formula and in 1967 to have the state take over the whole program.

Matthews noted that when the State transferred welfare obligations to the counties in 1959, state officials promised that there would be no expense involved over the then current welfare bill of $3,000,000.

"Instead we find that county costs have quadrupled and our finances are strained to the breaking point. The state can no longer afford to disclaim responsibility for a problem that is both state and nationwide," Matthews asserted.

State contributions for 1966 based on the proposed 75-25 cost sharing formula would wipe out the anticipated $5.6 million hike in the overall county budget and provide for a tax cut rather than the tax hike," Matthews said.

The Freeholder director said the full state takeover by 1967 was no longer "a forlorn hope" because of the increased representation in Trenton for the larger populated counties.

"Those counties with large metropolitan centers are sympathetic to our plight and move over most thinking legislators know the responsibility can best be met by the state. Any rearrangement of the state tax structure should most certainly consider the welfare plight of our urban counties," Matthews said.

Director Matthews said he would also ask Essex legislators to help relieve through state funds the Essex share of cost of mandatory items in the budget.

"The cost of the courts and law enforcement in Essex has jumped 12.36 per cent in 1966 over 1965; hospital costs have advanced 7.7 per cent and state institution bills have skyrocketed 14.71 per cent. Considering these factors, the Board of Freeholders have done a remarkable job in holding the tax rate increase to eight cents," Matthews said.

Bond

The right of every citizen to voice public dissent is a keystone of our democracy. To destroy that right by refusing to seat a legislator, elected by the people, who has expressed unpopular opinions strikes at the very basis of our democracy. The fact that Julian Bond is one of the first Negroes freely elected to a formerly segregated Georgia House is cause for further grave concern on the part of all Americans. Free speech, as guaranteed in our Constitution, means nothing unless it means free speech for the unpopular cause and the dissenter.

The rights of every American stand in jeopardy if the action of the Georgia House is not reversed and Julian Bond accorded the seat to which he was elected and which he has now been denied because he has exercised his right to free speech as an American citizen.

South Africans
Duty Apartheid
In Golf Play

HERMISTON, South Africa—
Segregation laws were smashed
last week in sports when white and black players
followed the national hero, Gary Player, during the opening round of the Professional Golfers Association tournament here.

The Government had permitted non-whites to attend the tournament since the 1964
Club, which is a slight mistake, but had not allowed them to be kept apart
from the whites.

The crowd that followed Player and his partners from the first tee included about 300
non-whites. Police were unable to separate them.

As the tournament progressed,
the crowd dispersed over the course and attempts at segregation were abandoned.

The Durban-born Indian,
member of the South African first non-white golfer to take part in the P. G. A. tourney. It has been nearly five years since he reached the apartheid barrier
in sports by competing in the South African open championship.

Gowling received Government permission to play in the tournament here under the condition that he be surrounded by a team of white golfers for eating, betting
and changing.

Not many non-whites were expected to attend the tournament because the P. G. A. is changing the same practice for all races. Normally, nonwhites are charged half-price at tipping events because of their lower salaries.

Of all holes here, only one, on the 40th hole, five to see his first birth. Birth defects are a leading cause of these deaths,
according to The National Foundation for Down's Syndrome.

Prime Minister To Attend African Talks

LONDON — The British Commonwealth conference to be held this week in Lagos, Nigeria
which will involve the question of Rhodesia, will be attended by Prime Minister Wilson. It was revealed by British officials last week.

Wilson's decision reflected growing confidence that Britain
could bring down the rebel Rhodesian regime by economic sanctions.

The Lagos conference had loomed as an embarrassing problem for Mr. Wilson. It seemed likely to be a forum largely for Anglo-Indian attacks on Britain for its policy of supporting the minority that declared Rhodesia independence in November.

For this reason Mr. Wilson delayed for weeks his answer to the invitation from Nigeria's
Prime Minister, Sir Abubakar Tafawa Balewa. He was hesitant to have a British representative at the conference if that representative was going to serve as a whipping boy.

The economic picture today is
remarkable for two reasons.
First, we are entering an unprecedented sixth straight year of business expansion. Second, the
forecasts of the experts are virtually unanimous in taking a
favorable view of the next
twelve months. In this attitude
government officials such as
Henry H. Fowler, Treasury Secretary, and Gardner Ackley,
chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisors, are
joined by private economists
representing major financial institutions as well as the National Industrial Conference Board, the National Association of Purchasing
Agents.

Here are some of the most
significant forecasts: (1) a projected 4.1 percent increase in the
Gross National Product over
1965's record $70 billion. (2)
McGraw-Hill's estimate of $55
billion in capital investment by
industry, an increase of 8 percent over 1965 (3) an unemployment rate which has hovered
around the 4.4 percent level for several months—not far above
the 4 percent which Department
of Labor economists consider the
"minimum" (4) F. W. Dodge's
forecast of a 4.1 percent increase
in total 1966 construction contracts, including a 5.1 percent
rise in residential construction,
and (5) consumer surveys by the University of Michigan—the
former indicating that nearly 11 percent of Americans plan to
buy new cars during the year.

Now against these trends, certain inflationary warning signs
must be noted. These include recent price increases in the food
and energy sectors.

Britain's object is to restore its own control over Rhodesia
until guarantees for the black African majority there are assured. In any move for independence, the British will insist on the principle of Prime Minister Ian
D. Smith will collapse by spring.

With evidence of economic pressure on Rhodesia at hand, Mr. Wilson is expected to be able to buy new cars during the year. It seems certain that he will ask for stronger African support of sanctions.

Weaver Appointment Hailed By Wilkins

NEW YORK — President Lyndon
B. Johnson's announcement of his nomination of Robert C.
Weaver as Secretary of the new Department of Housing and Urban Development was hailed by NAACP Executive Director Roy Wilkins as a "history-making appointment."

The President made the announcement of the appointment of the first Negro for a Cabinet
post at a White House news conference on Jan. 18. Mr. Wilkins dispatched a telegram to the President lauding the naming of the housing expert and former chairman of the NAACP Board of Directors.

The text of Mr. Wilkins' telegram follows:
Congratulations and deep
thanks for your history-making appointment of Robert C. Weaver to be secretary of the new Created Department of Housing and Urban Development. You will have a cabinet officer who has a long record of Public service, part of which has been under the NAACP banner for four years. The National Association of Colored People, which is proud of him as a former national officer, believes you have in him
an outstanding public servant.
He will be a loyal and effective
member of your administration's family and his services will benefit all the citizens of our country.

Dr. Weaver became a member of the NAACP Board of Directors in 1961. Later, in 1964, he was chosen vice chairman of the board. In 1960, chairman, succeeding Dr. Channing H.
Tobias. In 1961, after President John F. Kennedy appointed him administrator of the Housing and Home Finance Agency, he resigned as chairman of the NAACP Board.

In 1962 he was awarded the coveted Spingarn Medal "in recognition of his distinguished service to his city, state and nation, in tribute to his pioneer role in the development of the doctrine of 'open occupancy' in housing; and in gratitude for his militant and responsible leadership in the Fight for Freedom."

Dr. Weaver entered government service in 1963 as an aide to Secretary of Housing Harold L.
Ickes. Later he became special assistant to Nathan Straus, administrator of the U. S. Housing Authority. During World War II,
he served with the Office of Production Management and the War Manpower Commission.

When President Kennedy appointed him, he was vice chairman of the New York City
Housing and Redevelopment Board. Previously he had served as rent administrator.

Howard Savings 1966 Perspective

By JOHN W. KRESS, President
The Howard Savings Institution

Steady, though not spectacular,
growth should characterize general business activity during 1966. If the major motivating forces in the economy go forward at their present pace, the picture for the nation as a whole—and New Jersey in particular—favors further gains in every front.

The economic picture today is
remarkable for two reasons.
First, we are entering an unprecedented sixth straight year of
business expansion. Second, the
forecasts of the experts are virtually unanimous in taking a
favorable view of the next
twelve months. In this attitude
government officials such as
Henry H. Fowler, Treasury Secretary, and Gardner Ackley,
chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisors, are
joined by private economists
representing major financial institutions as well as the National Industrial Conference Board, the National Association of Purchasing
Agents.

Here are some of the most
significant forecasts: (1) a projected 4.1 percent increase in the
Gross National Product over
1965's record $70 billion. (2)
McGraw-Hill's estimate of $55
billion in capital investment by
industry, an increase of 8 per-
cent over 1965 (3) an unemployment rate which has hovered
around the 4.4 percent level for
several months—not far above
the 4 percent which Department
of Labor economists consider the
"minimum" (4) F. W. Dodge's
forecast of a 4.1 percent increase
in total 1966 construction con-
tracts, including a 5.1 percent
rise in residential construction,
and (5) consumer surveys by the University of Michigan—the
former indicating that nearly 11 percent of Americans plan to
buy new cars during the year.

Now against these trends, certain inflationary warning signs
must be noted. These include re-
cent price increases in the food
and energy sectors.

At a competitive disadvantage
with banks in New York and Pennsylvania where more liberal laws prevail.

We must think of the future
and we must prepare our banking system to supply the banking needs of the future. The credit will be needed to sustain New Jersey's long-range economic development. The Legislature in Trenton must take this year
consider a measure which would permit banks to establish branches in counties contiguous
to their own. I sincerely hope that our lawmakers will act favorably and promptly on this proposal to avert a possible
"credit gap" in the state's economy. State Banking Commissioner Charles R. Howell has long favored liberalizing the branching laws, and I feel sure he will be joined in support of new legislation by many of the state's business and legislative leaders.

Meanwhile New Jersey's banks
will continue to grow and contribute in every way they can to the state's further steady economic growth. The Howard Savings Institution will do its best to increase its deposits and resources and thus help to meet the need for capital to build new schools, hospitals, school
hospitals, and business enterprises
for the people of growing New Jersey.

Dr. King Gives Aid To Bond For Ga. House Seat

ATLANTA — The Rev. Dr.
Martin Luther King Jr., out-short a visit to Los Angeles and other cities, will be in the week to join the fight in support of Representative-elect Horace Julien Bond civil rights worker who has refused a seat in the Georgia Legislature because of his views on the draft and United States involvement in Vietnam.

About 1,000 persons marched on the Georgia Capitol in protest of the ouster of Representative-elect Julien Bond.

Dr. King met with Mr. Bond and other civil rights leaders to discuss the possibility of mass
protest demonstrations to protect the ouster.

The House voted 194 to 12,
last week to bar Mr. Bond after he refused to withdraw his support of a statement criticizing the United States action in Vietnam.

That statement by the state-house, which was signed by Mr. Bond and other civil rights leaders, was also a warning sympathy for "those unwilling to respond to a military draft."

The House held Mr. Bond guilty of "disorderly conduct"
because of what he called critics of the Vietnam war. The draft law is a "disorderly conduct" and a "disorderly conduct" and a "disorderly conduct."

A special election campaign with Mr. Bond as a candidate will be held in the spring of the Vietnam protest issue. The student committee said Dr.
King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference had been expected to work for Mr. Bond's election. Dr. King has expressed reservations about the United States involvement in Vietnam.

Governor Sanders complimented the House in his
"State of the State" address. He said, "It was acted upon with a proper sense of responsibility
by all concerned."

Meyner Refuses To Run Against Senator Case

TRENTON — Former Democratic Gov. Robert B. Meyner in a statement Saturday of last week declared that he would not run next November against Senator Clifford P. Case.

At a labor dinner in Newark
on Dec. 20, Vincent J. Carroll, president of the State American Federation of Labor-Congress of Industrial Organizations, called Mr. Case a "race issue" and said that he was "a man of guilt by association" and that he was "a man of guilt by association" and that he was "a man of guilt by association."

Nevertheless, a Meyner candidacy would have offered labor
an opportunity to support Mr.
Case without risking the loss of pro-labor Democratic Congressmen under a ticket led by Mr. Meyner. Without Mr. Mey-ner on the ticket, the unions face the real possibility of losing several Democrats in a Case landslide victory.

Labor is badly split in the state but united in its affection for Mr. Case. But political obstacles report that the labor union may now begin to show increasing signs of turning into a political luxury, which labor
cannot afford with Mr. Meyner out of the race.

Mr. Meyner, who is 67 years old, has a successful professional career. And this, along with several other private commitments, is understood to be the major reason for his refusal to run against Mr. Case. He is also the final arbiter for the cigar industry's advertising
code.

SCOUT NEWS

James Killough Jr., Scout Executive of the Robert Treat Council, of Newark, Irvington
and Belleville, will retire February 1st after more than 10 years in the profession of Scouting.
The last twenty-two in the Robert Treat post. He became an university right in their own schools, centers and other meeting rooms of other groups. At the same time other groups are given at centers

conducted at central locations
and informally in all districts monthly. The Council now has a large and active library of audio and visual aids to supplement its training program.

In recent years the Council has been giving aids and helpful services for the leaders has been greatly expanded. A program to organize additional units where more boys will find a place to join is under way.

Killough has served on a number of local committees
and on regional and national Scouting committees. He has been a member of the first National Scout Executive Staff
for all but the first of the National Jamborees. He is presently National Chairman of Scout Executives' Alliance.

His successor will be named shortly according to Arthur L.
Mann, Council President and Chairman of Bamberger's, New Jersey.

Second State 'U' Proposed For N. J.

TRENTON — A second State University composed of New Jersey's six State Colleges was proposed here Monday by the state's educational leadership.

This basic change in the structure of public higher education in New Jersey would combine the State Colleges into the Woodrow Wilson State University.

It would be run by a board of governors similar to the board which controls Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey. Colleges built in the future would also become part of WWSU.

Rutgers would remain a separate State University controlled by its own board of governors
and operating as it does at present.

The State Board of Education
would continue to recommend the annual budget appropriations for the State Colleges and for Rutgers. Thus, the State Board will still coordinate all public elementary, secondary and higher education in New Jersey.

However, the proposal would give the State Colleges "the authority to handle their own
budgets within a single total State budget appropriation. It will also give the colleges
greater autonomy in managing their own affairs and in their own development.

The plan was formulated by leaders of the New Jersey Education Association, the N. J. State Federation of District Boards of Education and the N. J. Association of School Administrators.

Wilkins Attends Rites of Latest NAACP Martyr

HATTIESBURG, Miss. — Executive Director Roy Wilkins of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People attended the last rites of an NAACP leader killed in the duty on the civil rights battle-front here Saturday, January 15.

The occasion—the funeral of James D. Farmer, 40, who died Monday night, January 10,
of injuries suffered when night-
riders shot-up and fire-bombed
his home, store and car in the early morning hours that same day. Mr. Farmer was a former vice president of the Forth Worth NAACP Branch. Recently, he had been active in an NAACP
voter registration campaign.

Mr. Wilkins was accompanied by G. B. Current, NAACP
director of branches and field
administration, and Charles Evers, NAACP Mississippi field
director.

The funeral was held at the St. George Baptist Church at 1 p.m.

Arrived over the death of the former NAACP leader, Negro
citizens of Hattiesburg, Miss.,
mass meeting Tuesday night,
Jan. 11, at the James A. Amos Church before marching to the St. George Baptist Church.

Where the present NAACP
branch president, J. C. Fairley, read a list of 18 demands. The demands included:

Hiring of two Negro deputies;
appointment of Negroes to the county school board and election
to the city school board; integration of Negroes already on the police force with the white
police; desegregation of the same as white policemen;

Hiring of Negro bus drivers
and streetcar conductors;
cancellation of the curfew law
for Negroes in Negro neighborhoods; desegregation of all
city and county facilities; desegregation of hotel, restaurant
and faculty in all public schools;

Placement of Negroes on the city council and on all city policy-making bodies; desegregation of juries; desegregation of hospitals for all patients and desegregation of courts; and protection of Negroes by all mass media.

An Editorial:

Dr. King Defends Julian Bond

By DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.
President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference
January 12, 1965

It is incumbent upon me this day to express my indignation for the State Legislature's unconscionable refusal on Monday to seat Representative-Elect Julian Bond. In my estimation, the State Legislature's action was unfortunate, unfair and unjust. I feel that this move by an integral part of Georgia's lawmaking machinery was both politically unsound and morally unjustifiable.

The right to dissent, like the right to worship, is indelibly etched into the framework of this nation's democratic government. Furthermore, the founding fathers who carved this great country out of strong moral convictions and raw physical courage were dissenters. I therefore find it both alarming and disturbing to find our nation moving on an obviously unalterable course where dissent is equated with disloyalty.

The greatness of America, in the final analysis, is the individual right to protest for what one believes is right and to be able to engage in free speech, a right constitutionally guaranteed in the First Amendment.

It is a little-known fact, but the late President Kennedy is reported in Arthur Schlesinger's recent book, "A Thousand Days," to have said on an occasion:

"War will exist until that distant day when the conscientious objector enjoys the same reputation and prestige that the warrior does today."

I find it impossible not to believe that the decision by 184 members of the State Legislature to refuse to seat Mr. Bond had obvious racial overtones. For, by careful examination, I find that many of the persons who voted to refuse to seat Mr. Bond were and are the very persons who have consistently defied the law of the land through their irresponsible acts and statements. It was members of this very august body who, through irresponsible statements and acts, precipitated a riot at the University of Georgia. Moreover, there was never an outcry for unseating the members of the State Legislature who, in 1954, so blatantly advocated defying, evading, and circumventing the U. S. Supreme Court's school desegregation decision.

A more grievous error was made by this State Legislature when it decided that the people of Fulton County's 136th District cannot decide who is to represent them in this body. Mr. Bond was elected by 82 per cent of the voters in his District, and what this Legislature has done is to arbitrarily decide that these voters do not have a right to decide who is to represent them.

In light of this grave injustice, the Negro community and white persons of good will have no alternative but to engage in creative protest. The Southern Christian Leadership Conference will join the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee on all other persons of good will on Friday in an expression of indignation in the streets. We plan to march on the legislative body that found it necessary to expel a duly elected representative. Our march will be a tribute to Mr. Bond, who, on that date, will celebrate his 26th birthday anniversary. However, we will not wait until then to engage in direct action. We will begin now. This whole situation has caused us to see the urgency of going throughout the State of Georgia in a massive voter registration campaign designed to purge the State of political leaders with myopic vision. We will immediately embark on this campaign.

I herewith call upon Governor Sanders to immediately initiate a resolution to fill the vacant legislative seat

THE BIBLE

THIS BOOK CONTAINS

The mind of God, the way of salvation, the happiness of believer. Read it to become wise, Believe it to be safe, Practice it to be holy. It contains light to direct you, and comfort to cheer you. It is the traveler map. The pilgrims staff, the pilots compass, the soldiers sword and the christian's character. It will help to open the gates of hell disclosed, Christ is its subject, our good its design, the glory of God its end. It should fill the memory, and rule the heart and guide the feet. Read it slowly, frequently, prayerfully. It is a mine of wealth and a river of pleasure. It involves the responsibility and will reward the greatest labor. It is given to you in this life and is established forever. (This is carved in marble at the entrance of the Dutch Reformed Church in Arubel, Netherland West Indies).

PRAYER FOR TODAY

O Lord my God, as I enter this time of meditation and prayer I look to Thee. As I open my Bible I pray that the Holy Spirit who moved upon the hearts of men to write these words may interpret them to my mind, impress them upon my heart and write the min my life. Without Thee, Holy Spirit, these are merely words upon a printed page. But with Thee they are pulsating with life.

Trustee
Greater Newark Council of Churches

At the Greater Newark Council of Churches Executive Board meeting The Rev. Robert E. Johnson, Urban Coordinator of The Synod of New Jersey United Presbyterian Church U.S.A. informed the ministers of the resolution adopted at a special meeting held last week at the Watchung Presbyterian Church in Bloomfield. The Newark Churches unanimously approved the following:

- (1) That the Presbytery of Newark reiterates its strong public endorsement of the United Community Corporation;
- (2) That the churches of Presbytery encourage its members to contribute to the cause during January, 1966, and that the churches of Presbytery receive an offering for this program during January, 1966;
- (3) That the Presbytery communicates this action to the Greater Newark Council of Churches, the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Newark and the Jewish congregations to encourage their people to similar action;
- (4) That the Committee on Church and Society prepare materials and give help for promotion, informing Presbyterians regarding the purpose of the offering;
- (5) That churches already participating in the Pre-School program be commended and all others be encouraged to do so where opportunity presents itself; that the Presbytery Mission Committee continue its responsibility in this matter;
- (6) That the Church and Society Committee encourages citizens of Newark to communicate personally or by letter to the Newark City Council and/or its members indicating their support of the United Community Corporation;
- (7) That the above action of Presbytery be communicated to the Press and to the Mayor of Newark, also to the members of the Newark City Council, the Board of Freeholders, Mr. John Bullitt, Mr. Sargent Shriver, the Congressmen and Senators of the State and to Governor Hughes.

The Christ Memorial Church 10 Rankin Street, Newark, N.J. will install elected officer, Sunday Jan. 24, 1966. Rev. R.L. Smith is the pastor, Deacon

John Andrews, chairman of the board, Brother Eugene Blair chairman of the Trusty Board. Rev. J.L. McClaine of Grace Temple Baptist Church of Newark will preach the installment sermon, Ministers and Churches in the community have been invited.

(P.S.) Miss Lamoria Crute of Newark and the Rev. R.L. Smith announced their engagement to be married soon. Best wishes to the both of them.

Leontyne Price Awarded 6th Spingarn Medal

NEW YORK — Metropolitan opera star Leontyne Price received the 50th Spingarn Medal of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People at special ceremonies at the NAACP's 1966 annual Fellowship dinner at the New York Hilton Hotel on Jan. 2.

The Medal, awarded annually to an American Negro for highest achievement, was presented to Miss Price by Rudolf Bing, general manager of the Metropolitan Opera Company.

The honor was given to Miss Price "in recognition of her divinely inspired talent, in tribute to her extraordinary achievement as the outstanding soprano of our era, and in appreciation of her priceless contribution as artist, citizen and person to the continuing crusade for justice, equality and understanding among the peoples of the world."

The Metropolitan Opera diva was described as a "golden-voiced opera singer, ambassador of good will and exemplar of universal brotherhood."

Miss Price's schedule prevented her accepting the award at the NAACP annual convention in Denver, Colo., this past summer when the award is usually made.

ning city antipoverty programs and covers a six-month period. It will be used principally for hiring an executive director, three neighborhood organizers, one community organizer and a secretary.

In Effect Jan. 5 Kelly said the meeting had been arranged through Sen. Harrison A. Williams, D-N.J., with William Bozman of the OEO. According to Kelly, the grant was effective Jan. 5, although the city had never gotten formal notice of it, but Bozman said yesterday it could be postponed to provide time to select a staff.

For the last half-year, the program has been working through the United Community Services with Ralph A. Sims as acting director. Over this time, the city has been paying UCS approximately the equivalent of Sims salary, Brach said, while UCS has absorbed overhead costs.

Kelly said the city will start using the grant Feb. 1. Meanwhile, the UCS and steering committee of the CAP will interview and select applicants for staff posts, and the city will begin preparing an application for a one-year federal grant for specific antipoverty programs.

Christine Olivier Carero and her brother Rubens return to Newark last Saturday after a months visit with their parents in Cap-Haitien, Haiti, W.I., also members of their family live in Port-au-Prince.

Christine and Rubens reside in Newark. She is a registered nurse working at Newark City Hospital. Rubens is a student at the University of Newark.

Know Your Neighbor

By DR. WILLIAM SMITH

NELSON MADDOX of East Orange, president of the 4th Ward Democratic Association, has been named to the city's Planning Board by Mayor James W. Kelly Jr.

Maddox, 40, succeeds Richard M. Connor Sr., whose term expired Jan. 1. The appointment is for a six-year term and does not need council confirmation.

A local resident 15 years, Maddox attended the Penn Institute of Industrial Trades, Philadelphia, and served in the Navy during World War II. He is a production grinder at the New Departure Hyatt, Harrison, a division of General Motors.

Maddox is also treasurer of the N. 17th St. Civic Association and the Improved Benevolent Protective Order of Elks. He lives at 28 N. 17th St. with his wife and four children.

EAST ORANGE WILL GET $22,717 FOR ITS PROGRAM

Confirmation of a $22,717 federal grant for the community action program in East Orange was announced yesterday by Mayor James W. Kelly Jr.

Kelly, along with City Counsel William L. Brach, conferred Wednesday with officials of the Office of Economic Opportunity in Washington on the grant, which had been unofficially reported last week by Rep. Joseph D. Minchin, D-11th Dist.

The federal aid makes up the bulk of $25,014 needed for plan-because I live there. Since I have now resided there for more than the legal requirement for voting privileges, I will have my voting registration changed. Needless to say, my interest is intensified when I reflect that a great deal of my time and efforts in the past few years were spent toward securing voting rights for my people. Personally, I find it distressing that I and my family are now without representation in the Georgia Legislature. I therefore intend to do everything humanly possible to expedite the seating of Mr. Bond to a position to which he was overwhelmingly voted to serve.

As another recourse to direct action, a court action will be brought about within the next few hours to expedite this situation. The Hon. Charles L. Bond, Jr. is the attorney for the State of Georgia.
